On the road Bench · Stone Designs

The On the road bench isn't interested in anything showy or superfluous. Just being itself is all it needs to feel free and to instill its character and essence. It was inspired by a long motorcycle trip on Route 66. Perhaps that's why it prefers you to move it around and put it anywhere rather than treating it as a static, fixed piece of furniture. It prefers to move freely and bring its spontaneity, warmth and coziness to the space it lives in. Put it in your entrance hall, ready to greet you and help you take your shoes off and unwind for a while when you get home at the end of a stressful day. At the foot of your bed. In the middle of your dressing room. In the reception area of the hotel, for the comfort of guests as they come and go. Or in the office, for informal meetings or for resting in the downtime area. You won't be able to resist sitting down on its soft cushion and letting your mind be pulled towards the changing horizon of your own landscapes.

Al banco On the road no le van los adornos ni lo superfluo. Ser él mismo es todo lo que necesita para sentirse libre y transmitir su espíritu y su esencia. La inspiración llegó en un largo viaje en motocicleta por la Ruta 66. Quizás por eso te invita a ubicarlo en cualquier lugar y a no planteártelo como un elemento fijo ni estático. La monotonía no es para él. Le gusta moverse con libertad y llevar su naturalidad y calidez al espacio que habita. En la entrada de casa, listo para recibirte y ayudarte a quitarte los zapatos y el estrés acumulado. A los pies de tu cama. En el centro del vestidor. En la recepción del hotel, para acomodar a los clientes que vienen y van. O en la oficina, para reuniones informales y en zonas de descanso y desconexión. Porque su mullido cojín te provoca a sentarte y dejarte llevar al horizonte cambiante de tus propios paisajes.
