

TONY CHI: Designer/Restaurateur

ELI BROAD's L.A.

TOKYO Tree House

METROPOLIS

ARCHITECTURE < CULTURE > DESIGN

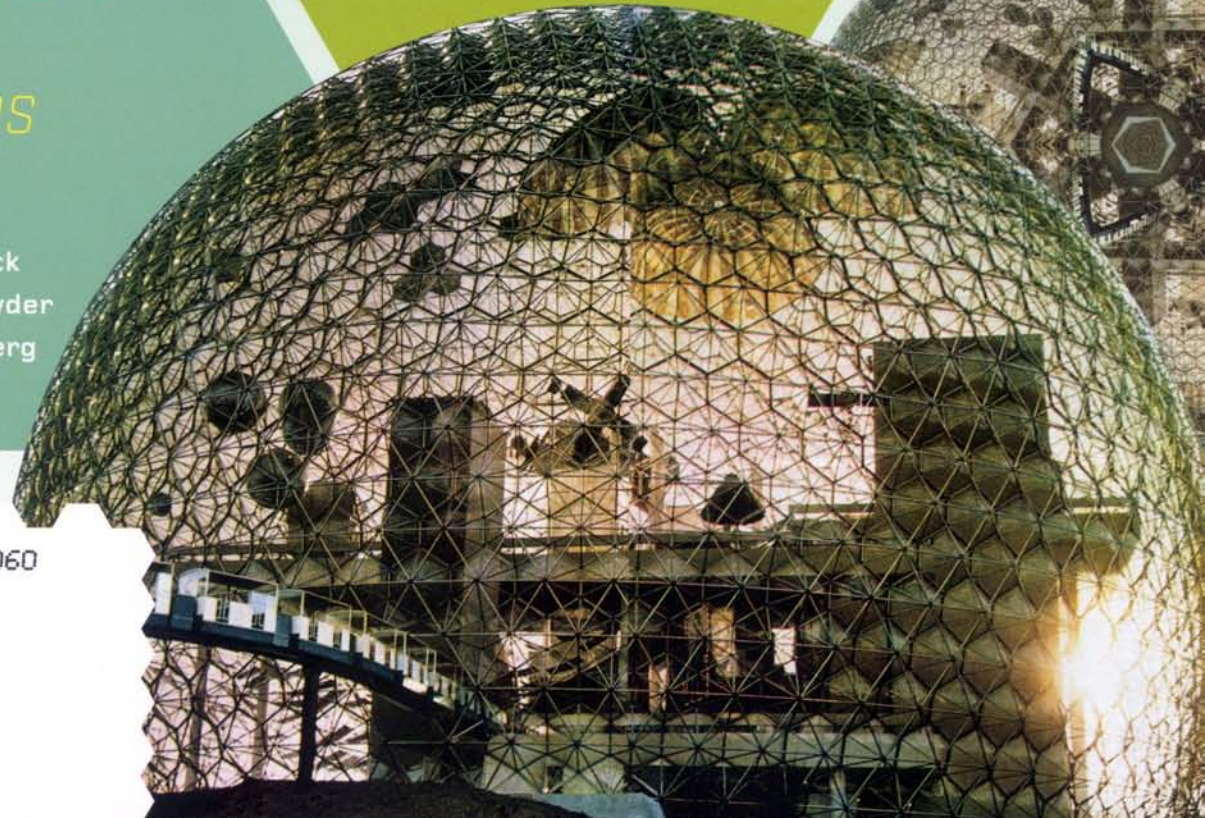

July/August 2008

The SUSTAINABLE DREAMER

WHY
Buckminster
Fuller

STILL MATTERS

Norman Foster
Nicholas Grimshaw
Thomas Heatherwick
Allegra Fuller Snyder
Edwin Schlossberg
Shoji Sadao

WWW.METROPOLISMAG.COM

*****CAR-RT LOT**C-060

PRODUCTSPHERE

Artelano Log Armchair

Patricia Urquiola's armchair, available in the United States from Lepere, has a thick beech frame, shown here with longhair Mongolian sheep fur. The frame is also available in black, white, or orange lacquer, and you can substitute leather for the seat and back or seat only.

www.artelano.com;
 (212) 488-7000,
www.lepereinc.com

Dallas Performance Park

Michel Desvigne's design for this ten-acre public park in downtown Dallas will join new buildings by Rem Koolhaas and Norman Foster as part of the Dallas Center for the Performing Arts. The park will include an urban public square, multiple lawns with natural gardens, a reflecting pool, promenades, and walkways.

www.dallasperformingarts.org

Baccarat Crystal Dream Chair

This chair, by Philippe Starck, comes in chrome steel and clear crystal with a choice of slate-gray, copper, or pearl polypropylene fabric.

(212) 826-4100,
www.baccarat.com

Ligne Roset Pumpkin Collection

Pierre Paulin originally designed this all-foam armchair, loveseat, and sofa in 1969 for the Élysée Palace. The collection was nominated for the Classic Innovation Award at this year's IMM Cologne and is now available from Ligne Roset.

(800) 297-6738,
www.ligne-rosset-usa.com